When it comes to family matters, call upon the experts...

Family matters which require legal intervention are often highly sensitive and require careful handling from the outset in order to achieve the best outcome for those concerned, especially when there is a child involved.

With our dedicated team led by Roberta Ferrari (one of North Somerset's most experienced and highly regarded family lawyers) we always put the customer first, taking the time to get to know you and your situation to make sure you get the best result.

With over 20 years of experience, we continue to be at the forefront of family law issues today and represent clients at the highest levels. Recently, two of our cases have been reported, a Court of Appeal judgment and a Bailli reported judgement, which demonstrates our ability in handling complex family cases to high levels.

If you need a legal expert to guide you through a tricky time in your family life, do not hesitate to call us today on 01934 623501 or email helpforyou@powellslaw.co.uk

Time to get wise about Inheritance Tax Planning?

If you're starting to think about making provision for future generations, then make sure you seek expert advice from us to get a clear idea on how inheritance tax will affect you and your family in the years to come, and plan for how best to protect your most valued assets so that what you've worked hard for is handed on in its entirety.

To provide a more joined up approach we have introduced an Inheritance Tax Planning service which offers clients expert legal advice on protecting their assets for future generations.

If you would like to hear more or have any questions, speak to us today for an initial no obligation discussion. Call 01934 623501 or visit powellslaw.com for more information on all of our legal services.

Introducing our new Flexi-Services to put you more in control

We know our clients want quality advice and quick, professional solutions at a price that offers great value, so we have developed a series of options to help you choose the level of service that suits you best.

Whether you would like to Pay as You Go, know the fixed cost up front, or adopt a more flexible full representation approach, you can choose the package that suits your needs from a wider range of options. The introduction of these new payment plans gives you greater control over how you manage and pay for your legal support.

Seminar Success

On 23rd October we held a 'Your Money Your Future' seminar at the Weston Golf Club focusing on issues that may affect you in later life such as deciding on a Power of Attorney, Inheritance Tax planning and Will Drafting. The Free Seminar was a great success with many attendees expressing an interest to visit further seminars hosted by us in the future. If you were unable to make the event but would be interested in finding out more on these areas of the law, call us today on 01934 623501 to speak with our Private Client Team and book your free initial discussion with one of our expert lawyers.

Health and Welfare Protection - Protect what's rightfully yours

When making plans for your future welfare, it is vital to seek expert advice so you can plan ahead. Addressing this issue early on when you are in a better position to plan and make decisions can provide better solutions and often save time, money and hassle at what might otherwise prove to be stressful time. We have recently introduced our 'Health and Welfare Protection' service which draws upon the wealth of expertise from many of our lawyers experienced in this area.

If you would like to start planning for your future, get in contact with us for an initial no obligation discussion, call 01934 623501 or visit powellslaw.com.

New faces in the office

Given the continued growth of our firm, we are delighted to announce that Sian Gale and Bo Yee Fan have joined us as Trainee Solicitors in the Family and Property and Commercial teams respectively.

Bo was born and raised in Staffordshire and read Law at The University of Manchester. After graduating she attended The College of Law in Birmingham to study for the Legal Practice Course. After graduating from The College of Law, she has gained experience working as a Paralegal in a variety of areas ranging from Property to Trade Marking.

Sian completed her law degree at Swansea University in 2011 and then went on to study the Legal Practice Course at Cardiff University in 2012. Prior to joining PowellsLaw, she worked as a paralegal specialising in both Residential Conveyancing and Employment Law. We welcome Bo and Sian to the firm and wish them the best of luck in their roles with us.
